

Applications:

Ongoing

Community Development:

The foundation puts special emphasis on projects that help communities help themselves. Sponsorship includes local community and civic enhancement projects and organizations and programs that promote community discussion and decision making on short and long range objectives for vitality and growth. Other areas of emphasis include: community foundations, community planning and development, downtown revitalization and main street programs and restoration and preservation of historic buildings.

More Info:

<http://www.cinergy.com/foundation>