Connected Tennessee State Broadband Summit

Connected Tennessee announces the Connected Tennessee State Broadband Summit will be held on Wednesday, February 27, 2013, in downtown Nashville. The first event of its kind, the Summit will assemble Tennessee leaders in business, state and local government, education, healthcare, and more to learn about broadband best practices in the state, discuss strategies to address remaining barriers to broadband access, adoption, and use and to network with other leaders across the state working to bridge the digital divide.
